CHRISTMAS SUNDAY

THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT STRONGLY IN EVIDENCE AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

December 21st was Christmas Sunday at Central Christian church and the auditorium was crowded when the service of worship opened. The choir of 18 members had been practicing on Christmas anthems for many weeks and their singing was a marked feature of the day. The pianist was accompanied by Roger Baker, the well known violinist of South Glendale. The sermon topic was "No Room in the Inn," and Rev. Cole applied it to the present day when so many, even of those who confess His name yet seem to have no room for Him in their hearts and lives. As the speaker put it, the present age is great on celebration but short on commemoration. He condemned the present day method of present giving, which was simply an exchange when Christmas is to give to those who can not give you in return.

The evening service was participated in by the Sunday school pupils who brought "White Gifts for the King," and laid them at the foot of the cross, which stood on the rostrum. There were very many of these and all will be sent to the Massie Home for old people, maintained at Long Beach by the Christian churches. A large offering, more than $50, was taken also, for ministerial relief and Armenian and Syrian relief. The program consisted of songs by choir and congregation, recitations and songs by the junior and primary departments, and short addresses by the pastor and the Sunday school superintendent.

The church auditorium was beautifully decorated for both services with Christmas trees, holly, palm branches, pepper tree boughs and flowers.

PAID YEAR IN ADVANCE

Since Saturday at 12 o'clock the following persons have paid Evening News subscriptions one year or more in advance, thus saving 20 per cent the coming year. On January 1, 1920, the subscription price will be increased to $5.00 per year. Until that date $4.00 pays for one year's subscription.

FUNERAL OF EUGENE HEUSMAN

Funeral services over the remains of Eugene Heusman who died suddenly December 20th of heart trouble at his home at 409 East Windsor Road, were held this morning at 9 a. m. at the Holy Family Catholic church with Father O'Neill officiating. Miss Viola Yorba sang "Face to "Face," Mrs. Ruprecht sang "Thy Will Be Done," and the two ladies sang in duet "Abide With Me." Pallbearers were H. V. Henry, T. J. Keleher, G. E. Southworth, James Coyle, M. J. Brennan and Jesse Smith. Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the high regard in which deceased had been held, and to the sympathy for his bereaved relatives. His was the second death in the family within a few months, his father having passed away in March. Interment was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park with the Scovern Company in charge.

AT REST

Ruth Severance King, second and only daughter of the late Charles L. and Etta S. King, passed happily away December 17, 1919, and was laid to rest in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale. She leaves a devoted mother, a brother, J. Louis King of Seattle, Wash., and an aunt, Mrs. Leta Severance Hiles of Long Beach, Cal.

This beautiful and talented young girl, a native Californian, would have been 18 years of age had she lived until December 20th. For the last five years she has lived a partially secluded life in Glendale in the hope of regaining complete health.

Ruth will be remembered by a limited number of friends in Glendale and in Kent, Wash., for her musical ability, personal charm, brilliant mind and beautiful character.

IMPORTANT DAY

SERVICES OF GREAT INTEREST AT GLENDALE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday was a big day at the Glendale Presbyterian Church in the sense that it was a day filled with events of interest and importance. There was fine Christmas music, Mrs. Retts singing at the Sunday school. She also sang at the church service in "The Birthday of the King," Clifford Riggs singing "Nazareth." The quartette numbers had to be omitted because Miss Cox is ill, but there was a fine anthem by the choir. The theme of Dr. Edmonds' sermon was: "The Wonderful Counsellor." He considered it under three heads, declaring that it was not enough to think of Jesus as the Christ Child, for he was more. He was the Savior and that led to Calvary and the crucifixion. The third step was Mount Olivet, where his disciples stood and saw him ascend into Heaven and where the voice said: "Why stand ye gazing into Heaven for ye shall come in like manner?" referring, of course, to the second coming of Christ. The great epochs in Christ's life he described as three links, the link of the manger, the link of the cross and the link of the ascension, declaring that the crucifixion held together the Christ Child of the manger and

ILLINOIS FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. David Black of Kenneth Road entertained Saturday evening with a dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hempstead of Mendota, Ill. Their home was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens, poinsettias and pepper berries and the table was exceedingly pretty in all its appointments. A bowl of red roses constituted the floral centerpiece and the place cards were in the shape of red Christmas bells supported by tiny Christmas trees. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Hempstead, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Daniel Campbell, Jr., Arthur Campbell, Miss Kathleen Campbell, Mrs. William Scott, mother of the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. David Black and their daughter, Miss Esther Black. Following the dinner a pleasant evening of conversation and games was enjoyed by the party.

C. D. SHATTUCK SURPRISED

When Charles D. Shattuck of 114 West Broadway attained the honorable age of fifty years some of his friends felt it was an anniversary which should be celebrated. Accordingly they surprised him Saturday night. Mrs. Shattuck was in the secret and they found the Shattuck apartment beautifully decorated with Christmas greens and holly. Also there was a handsome birthday cake illuminated with candles which dominated the refreshments served at the close of an evening of progressive games. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. M. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Danford, G. W. Calkins, Miss Coral Griffith, Miss Laura Roberts, Mrs. Roth, Messrs. Frank and Emil Kiefer.

FUNERAL OF MARGUERITE H. HAGUE

Funeral services over the remains of Marguerite H. Hague (wife of John Milton Hague) who passed away December 18th at her residence at 540 Oak Street, this city, are being held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. They are being conducted by Rev. Milton S. Runkle of Alhambra. Mrs. Hague, who was but thirty-three years of age when she passed away, was a native of Illinois. She had resided in California for fourteen years and met and married her husband in this state, he having lived here for nine years. Both were from Chicago. Two years ago he was appointed a letter carrier in Glendale and they have lived here during the interval. Interment will be at Forest Lawn.

R. O. Wildman of 120 East Laurel Street left Saturday afternoon for Nogales, Ariz., where his mother and sister reside. His brother is coming from Wichita, Kansas, to be with them holiday week and Mr. Wildman will surprise them by joining the party. He has not seen his brother for eight years. It will be a happy family reunion. He has made arrangements for his business to be carried on just as usual in his absence.

WEATHER FORECAST: Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. No important change in temperatures.

"PERSHING FOR PRESIDENT" BOOM

HEADQUARTERS OPENED IN CHICAGO AND MUCH LITERATURE ALREADY MAILED OUT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—General Pershing left a well defined presidential boom behind him when he left Chicago this morning for St. Louis. Apparently he had no personal connection with the boom. His friends however, have opened Pershing headquarters in the Congress Hotel and already have sent out 200,000 parcels of "Pershing for President" literature.

THE PEACE TREATY PROTOCOL

HOPE THAT FINAL CONDITIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED BY GERMANS AND INSTRUMENT SIGNED SOON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Dec. 22.—The peace conference has reached an agreement on the subject of reparation for the sinking of the German fleet in Scapa Flow. The final note will be handed the Germans tonight, which, it is believed, will permit the signing of the protocol and will place the peace treaty in effect before the first of the year.

AFFAIRS IN MEXICO

STATE DEPARTMENT INSTRUCTS EMBASSY TO TELL MEXICAN GOVERNMENT "OUTRAGES" MUST STOP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The State Department today instructed the American embassy at Mexico City to insist to the Mexican government that "outrages" against American citizens in Mexico City, stop. At the same time the department ordered that every possible step be taken to arrest the bandits who kidnapped Frederick Hugo at a ranch at Musquiz, recently.

Unofficial advices said that open warfare between Carranza and Obregon is threatening. Obregon is regarded as the strongest candidate for the presidency of Mexico. It is stated that Carranza is determined to retain control of the government even if it is necessary to postpone the national election scheduled for July 2. Obregon is apparently ready to organize his forces and take the field as soon as Carranza shows his hand.

NO CHRISTMAS BEER

SUPREME COURT POSTPONES DECISION ON TWO AND THREE-FOURTHS PER CENT BEER UNTIL JAN. 5

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—All chances for Christmas beer went "glimmering" today when the Supreme Court failed to announce its expected decision this morning in the cases involving the legality of two and three-fourths per cent beer. The count announced that no decision will be made before January 5.

CRITICAL CONDITIONS IN IRELAND

GENERALLY BELIEVED THAT EXTREMISTS ARE GETTING UPPER HAND IN EMERALD ISLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DUBLIN, Ireland, Dec. 22.—Political observers today conceded that yesterday's raid on the offices of "The Independent," the leading Dublin newspaper, coupled with the attack on Lord French furnished evidence that the extremist element in Ireland is gaining the upper hand. The attackers were able to escape entirely.

The raiders entering the Independent office smashed eighteen linotypes and three large presses, putting the plant out of commission for a month. The men who perpetrated the raid numbered about forty. The editor said he did not attribute the raid entirely to the Sinn Fein but partly to an old grudge on the part of the labor element.

HARRY S. NEW TRIAL SENSATIONS

DEFENSE ANNOUNCES WITNESS WHO WILL THROW AN ENTIRELY NEW LIGHT ON CASE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22.—Harry S. New's trial for the alleged murder of Freeda Lesser reopened today with a fresh sensation promised. The defense attorneys, heretofore reticent in revealing their plans, declared they would place a woman witness on the stand who would throw an entirely new light on the case. They said this witness would testify that a short time before Miss Lesser was killed alleged revelations involving her were made to New which would unhinge the mind of even a sane man. The defense claims that New is insane and that the alleged revelations would easily drive a man of this type to murder.

The opening of the trial this morning was delayed by other cases up for consideration. A larger crowd thronged the Hall of Justice today than at any time since the trial opened.

MORE ABOUT SITE

W. F. TOWER SUGGESTS PURCHASE OF TWO BLOCKS BET. GLENDALE AND LOUISE

Editor Glendale News:

In Proverbs we read: "In the multitude of counsellors there is wisdom." So the Evening News is serving a good purpose by getting an expression of the public on the best school site for the proposed new buildings. Personally I favor of the present site and then for playground purposes, the plot of ground bounded east and west by Glendale Avenue and Louise Street and north and south by Colorado Boulevard and Elk Street. It commends itself for three reasons: First, accessibility near the present grounds; second, the size—two good sized blocks; third, its scarcity of buildings to be purchased and wrecked or sold at a small price.

It seems a little strange in all the plans for the purchase of sites and erection of costly buildings approximating half million dollars in all the discussion at the public meeting held in the High School auditorium and in all the communications on the school question that only one person, Ezra Parker, has considered the need of some provision for night schools in Glendale, that much needed and much neglected branch of our Glendale school system. Every day or so we hear of the good work and interest in night schools in surrounding communities. In the interesting account of the Teachers' Convention in Los Angeles as reported by Professor White in the columns of the Evening News, is an extract from the address on "Americanization of Education," by Dr. H. B. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools at Berkeley. He spoke of vocational training as an essential part of our school system and also of the necessity of directing the leisure time of young people in proper and profitable channels. I could not help but apply these words of wisdom to our home affairs. Here we have a well-equipped mechanical arts building that should be open five nights each week to those who are denied day-time facilities. The fact that fifty persons petitioned for it at the first opportunity that was presented shows conclusively its need. Tax payers should not be required to send their young people to Los Angeles and to private night schools in Glendale. It seems a short-sighted policy to spend time, effort and money on Y. M. C. A. and similar efforts and then deny to young people and older ones, too, the opportunity for their improvement, intellectual and mechancial that night schools would afford, especially when the expense is borne by the State. The only explanation I can make for this situation is that our school authorities must have been born with silver spoons in their mouths and so have overlooked the need up to this time.

W. F. Tower.

ESTERLY FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. John Esterly who formerly resided in this city but who are now living in Los Angeles, expect to have an old fashioned family reunion on Christmas day when Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Esterly and family will be with them, Mr. and Mrs. William Esterly, their daughters, Emma and Helen Esterly, and some other friends and relatives. It will be the first time in five years that all the members of the family have been together at Christmas time. By the advice of surgeons William Esterly will undergo an operation following the holidays for the removal of the shrapnel in his lungs, from which he suffers acutely.

LITTLE FOLKS PARTY

Misses Eltha Harding and Roberta Hopping were the hostesses at a jolly little Christmas party one afternoon last week. It was for their Sunday school scholars—the second year primary of the First M. E. church, and took place at the Harding home at 707 Orange Grove Avenue. There was a Christmas tree and Santa came in the course of the afternoon, bringing small gifts for the guests, lively games were played and at the proper time refreshments of the kind that boys and girls like were served in a Christmas setting, which made a very attractive table. The guests were: Grace Starkey, Ruth Olson, Margaret Fansett, John Marvel, Malcolm McIrvin, James and Austin Hurley, Bettie Hitchcock, Walter Wright, Dorothy Clark, Thomas Taggart, Miriam Clewett, Satoni Sahiamasu, Phillis Foster, Frances May, Mary Jane Neel, Shirley Martin, Grace Harding, Doris Davis.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

SPECIAL MUSIC AND SERMONS CELEBRATE CHRIST'S BIRTH AND MISSION

Yesterday was the high water mark of the Christmas celebration in the Lutheran Church, corner Harvard and Maryland. The whole day was devoted to thoughts and doings of Christmas. In the morning the pastor preached a clear, plain sermon on "The Virgin Birth: How the Word Became Flesh." A very attentive and large audience was present.

In the evening the climax was reached with the crowded house taxing the capacity of the building to enjoy the well given Christmas program by the Sunday school entitled, "Yuletide." All the music was very fine and worthy of praise, likewise the recitations and songs and exercises, and beautiful Christmas drill. The usual treat was given to every scholar and all visiting children. Every one present was the recipient of a fine bright red apple. Miss Elizabeth Mottern, who has served the double capacity of vocalist and pianist of the church for over four years, was the recipient from the church council of a very fine expression of resolutions of appreciation for her untiring work in the music department. Others exchanged gifts among themselves. All was one good natured, happy family from the smallest to the oldest, pronouncing this Christmas service "just right," fine," "did credit to all." "glad we were here." Many friends were present at both the morning and evening services. Six new members were received in the morning, to the great encouragement of the congregation.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC AND SERMONS

Music was the outstanding feature of the morning and evening services at the Glendale Congregational Church, the program as published being carried out in detail to the great enjoyment of the congregation. The sermons by Dr. Willisford were brief. In the morning he spoke on the theme "The Gift and the Giver" taking as his text: "God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son." He referred to the tendency to emphasize the material side of Christmas and think of the tangible gifts exchanged and urged the need to get back to the true celebration of Christmas by thinking of this greatest of all the gifts God has bestowed upon the world, the gift of His Son, and the obligation to remember the giver.

His evening talk concerned the angelic message of "Peace on Earth Good Will to Men." He referred to the years of war and the fact that the armistice had not brought peace to the world, that between nations there is not yet accord and good will, that it is still lacking in the national life and in the industrial and commercial world, all of which indicates the great need of that peace on earth good will to men which can only come about by establishing in the hearts of men the principles of Christianity. He closed by quoting the statement made by one of the industrial leaders who is not a church man, who said at a great Chicago conference after many propositions had been set forth: "All the suggestions you have made are good, but none of them will settle these problems. The only way they can be settled is by the adoption of the teaching of Jesus Christ."

EIGHT BAPTISMS

Special Christmas music marked the Sunday services at the First Baptist Church of Glendale, Mrs. Vera McKee Neighbors singing at the morning service. In the evening "Holy Night" was sung by the quartette. The sermons by Pastor Ernest F. Ford were appropriate to the season. Eight persons were received into the church by baptism in the evening, vi. Mrs. Clara Eddings and daughter Ruth, Dorothy Hosking, Isabel Robertson, Leonard Robertson, Harper Rowe, Wesley Kent and Virginia Abbey.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Burt, Paul and John, the three sons of Mrs. Ella Richardson, are home for the Christmas holidays. Burt, who is attending Yale Law School, reports the weather as very cold in Boston and vicinity, and says he had great difficulty in securing his ticket and reservation. The train he came on ran in four sections, and he says everything is booked until January 7th. Paul attends Stanford University and John Mt. Tamalpias Military Academy. They all agree that Glendale looks very good to them and they are grateful for the opportunity of spending even this short time here.

The shifting of population caused by real estate sales has had quite a serious effect on the membership of some of the Parent-Teacher Associations. So many have moved from the neighborhood of the Magnolia school that the Mothers' Club has been discontinued.

Eric Morgan, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morgan, has been confined to his bed by a severe attack of bronchitis. He is improving and hopes to be well enough to enjoy some of the Christmas joys. He has been writing letters to Santa Claus explaining the situation, and it is quite certain the good Saint will not pass him by.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods of Berkeley, parents of Mrs. Ed Lynch, drove down a few days ago and are now guests in her home. They will probably be here the rest of the winter.

Mrs. S. E. Brown of 1239 South Maryland Avenue has been confined to her home by illness, but is reported much better. Mr. Brown's health is also improved.

Mrs. E. B. Hall of 1232 Mariposa Street expects Mr. Hall to come down from Shasta Springs to spend Christmas with her and their son. They are planning great holiday festivities.

Judge Huey and Mrs. Huey of Halleck, Cal., have been guests for a few days of Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Marlenee of 301 Cedar Street. They are old friends and were very welcome. They left today.

Mrs. E. W. Kingsley, Sr., had a cable a short time ago from her husband, who is in Paris, that he was about to start for home. She is looking for his arrival any day and is seeking larger living quarters than she now has.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harwood and Mrs. Eustace B. Moore attended the reunion banquet of students and alumni of the Santa Barbara Normal School, held Thursday evening which was followed by an entertainment at the Shrine Auditorium.

Mrs. J. E. Henderson of 401 West California Street was delightfully surprised Friday morning when her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkley of Fresno, arrived in Glendale. They will be with her until Sunday when they will leave for San Diego to visit their son, Dr. Pinkley.

Rev. A. H. DeLong of St. Joseph, Mo., district superintendent, who arrived here a few weeks ago with the intention of making this his home, died suddenly at Ocean Park on the 17th of December. His remains were returned on the 20th to St. Joseph for interment. He was an uncle of F. C. De Long of 420 Burchett Street.

Mrs. James R. Turner of 120 South Glendale Avenue returned on the 18th from a visit to Chicago, her former home. She says—quoting an old anecdote—"Thank the Lord, now I'm broke," meaning that she has been weaned from her allegiance to the windy city and is now perfectly contented with California.

The house which Kemper Campbell has been remodelling for his mother and two sisters has now been completed and they will take possession Monday. It has been repainted and so completely changed in appearance that no one would recognize it.

Miss Mayme Lobdell of Jasper, Minn., is the guest of Miss Pearl Tyler, and will probably be with her during the winter. The ladies expect to spend the holiday vacation sight-seeing in and around Los Angeles.

F. A. Alspach of 1213 Mariposa Street is now in Mount Pulaski, Ill., visiting his mother. He has written Mrs. Alspach: "It is mighty cold here and I will be glad to get home. We have every reason to thank God we can live in California." He expected to leave there the 22d and to get home for Christmas.

Christmas Sweets

Sweets of all kinds play an important part in the Christmas festivities and feasts. Children expect sweets in their Christmas stockings no matter what other gifts they receive. The older members of the family too, expect at least one box of candy with their other gifts.

Include in your gift boxes Some delicious fresh and don't forget to get a box or two to serve with your Christmas dinner, too. They are a California product and are far superior to the imported fruit.

Shakespeare's "Seven ages of man" pay tribute to Horlick's Malted Milk

From across every sea and land have come thousands of grateful letters to the Horlick offices, paying tribute to Horlick's Malted Milk. Mothers of contented babies, soldiers after a campaign, explorers back from the ice fields, high tension business and professional workers, invalids and the aged—all tell of the different needs that Horlick's has filled.

Horlick's has proved itself to be the ideal food for every age of Shakespeare's Seven. It is so complete in itself as to contain every element of nutrition necessary to sustain life—even of the most robust—and yet it is readily digestible by the delicate stomach of the infant and the invalid.

In these interesting extracts from letters to us the story is told:

1st Age.* "First the infant in the nurse's arms"

"Words fail to express how grateful I am to Horlick's Malted Milk. My babe was given up; it was said she would not live through the night. But the next morning it still lived, and while we anxiously watched it, a neighbor persuaded us to try 'Horlick's.' It was like putting oil on the wick of a dying lamp; she improved rapidly, and is now the joy of the house"

3d Age.* "Then the soldier seeking reputation at the cannon's mouth"

"Clara Barton of the Red Cross in her stories of the Spanish-American War tells how Colonel Roosevelt asked the Red Cross to sell him some supplies for some sick men in his regiment, but she declined. 'We cannot sell them, but you can have them for asking.' 'Oh, then I do ask for them.' 'All right, what is on your list?' The list was Horlick's Malted Milk, etc. Colonel Roosevelt slung the heavy sack over his shoulder, and trudged off through the jungle"

2d Age.* "Then the school boy with his shining morning face"

"I raised five children on 'Horlick's,' and they all love it still. It can't be beat as a nutritious lunch between meals for a growing boy or girl"

4th Age.* "And then the lover with his ballad"

"Horlick's growth as a fountain favorite has been marvelous. A constant stream of young couples in the afternoon and evening call for Horlick's Malted Milk, chocolate or plain. 'Horlick's' is a favorite lunch hour drink around universities with the students. A glass making a meal, they find it very economical and healthful"

5th Age.* "And then the justice full of wise saws"

"When I need an invigorator as the result of my work I drink a cup of 'Horlick's.' I have used it constantly for several years, and find it cannot be beat for weak stomach, as a diet. In fact, it is all that is claimed for it"

6th Age.* "The sixth age with spectacles on nose"

"I am 50 years old, and consider it a fortunate day when a friend induced me to try a cup of Horlick's Malted Milk. I use it with benefit and pleasure two or three times a day. It is delicious and has done me a world of good"

7th Age.* "Last scene of all that ends this eventful history"

"I could not do without it. It surely is a sleep producer and I am a nervous person, but Horlick's Malted Milk has helped me greatly. I have learned by experience that 'Horlick's' is as excellent for well people as for invalids" the Christ who is coming to receive his bride, The Church, out of the world.

At the evening service Dr. Edmonds completed his review of the book "In the Twinkling of an Eye," in which the final coming of Christ is pictured. He told how Tom Hammond had just written an editorial on the subject "Today Perhaps," for his paper, and his editorial assistant, Ralph, comes in and they discuss the theme a little, Ralph asking Tom if he absolutely believed it is coming to pass. Tom assures him of his faith and all at once Ralph realizes that Tom is gone, that he has disappeared. He is profoundly impressed and adds a few lines to the editorial explaining that Tom Hammond has been caught away. A boy comes into the editorial office to report that several of the printers on the paper have disappeared. Ralph goes onto the streets and finds everywhere wailing and confusion because of the many who are gone, no one knows whither. From the ranks of the worldly in attendance on the theatres and dance halls none seem to be missing, but elsewhere wives and husbands have found themselves bereft. Scenes of desolation in many homes are presented and a gathering of clergymen who endeavor to comfort those who are left and who confess their own shortcomings and failure to have lived up to the faith they taught.

The preaching service was followed by a Consecration service and at its close there was a gathering of members of the three official boards of the church to discuss plans for the proposed new church.

CHRISTMAS JINKS

Glendale Elks are looking forward to their annual Christmas jinks which they will enjoy at the regular meeting tonight. The session will be short and an adjournment will be taken to the jinks hall, where there will be a Christmas tree and a jolly Christmas program will be enjoyed. It will be limited of course, to members.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

The new bridge club has finally received the name "Fortnightly Club." It was delightfully entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Howeth at 329 North Orange Street, the residence beeing beautifully decorated for the occasion in the Christmas colors. Mrs. C. B. Lane of Burbank had the highest score for the ladies and F. C. Ayars for the gentlemen. Following play delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, those present being Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ayars, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Puffer, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Wernette and Mr. and Mrs. Howeth.
